Superintendent's Highlights

Idaho Falls School District 91's curriculum unity model – a process that began in 1990 – is nearing completion and is having a tremendous impact in our classrooms. Curriculum writers have delivered the finished product to teachers at all grade levels, and they are passing it on to students. The test of this huge undertaking will come with a comprehensive audit of the system in 2002. The real impact, however, is showing up on a daily basis in the achievements of our students.

Our Strategic Planning process has led to numerous improvements throughout the district this year and has identified a new list of goals for 2001-02.

Through the combined efforts of our parents, students, teachers, employees, administrators, and Board of Trustees, District 91 continued to "Create an Atmosphere for Excellence" during the 2000-01 school year.
